DEDICATION

As a small token of our appreciation and gratitude, we, the annual staff of Ilwaco High School, wish to dedicate the 1957 "Breakers" to Mr. Arthur Williams,' our Principal and music teacher.

Mr. Williams has devoted himself wholeheartedly and unselfishly to the improvement of our school, our music department, and our own social outlook.

In full recognition of his devotion and untiring efforts to our betterment, we do hereby dedicate this annual.

FOREWORD

The true meaning of high school is known best by those who attend daily. The essence of high school is the students who spend most of their time there. Our years at Ilwaco High will be long remembered, but our fonder memories will be of the happy associations with our fellow students. This annual is meant to be a small memento of our four years at Ilwaco High School.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Another school year comes to an end . . . to the freshmen, the first of four and to the seniors, the end of high school. What lies ahead? The goal is yours to set as high as you want. Some of you will reach that goal, all of you can. It will take determination and hard work, don't be satisfied "half-way." God speed to you all and remember we are always here to help when we can.

SENIOR CLASS HISTORY

After initiation the class of 1957 settled down as members of Ilwaco High. The class election was held, and Jon Kaino was voted president; Susan Hall, vice-president, and Marilyn Tetz, secretary. Mr. McFadden was sponsor that year. To start things off the freshmen won the student-body ticket race in the fall, and they ended the first year with a picnic at Waikaiki Beach.

During the sophomore year, Nancy Wilson was class president, Lyndall Haglund was vice-president, and Donna Deccio was the secretary-treasurer. The sophomore class advisor was Mr. Erickson. Once again the class won the ticket race in the fall and also welcomed the class of 1958 with the traditional initiation. Spring found the sophomores serving for the Junior-Senior Banquet and ending the year with the class picnic, again at Waikaiki Beach.

As upper-classmen the advisors were Miss Mack and Mrs. Wiley. The president of the junior class was Marilyn Tetz; vice-president, Tom Ahrend; and secretary, Eva Curry. Again the class won the student body ticket race. On December 3, the Junior Prom, "Mr. Sandman," was presented with Donna Deccio as queen. The Junior Play, "Dollars to Doughnuts," was given March 2nd under the direction of Miss Lutes. Next came the Junior-Senior Banquet on April 26 with the theme, "Memories Are Made of This." The juniors held the annual picnic that year at Fort Columbia.

The class of 1957 elected Bill Leback as president, Don Buhman as vice-president, Donna Deccio as secretary, and Jim Yaun as sergeant-at-arms. Mr. Boyd and Mrs. Beard were the class advisors. For the fourth consecutive year, the class won the ticket race. During the spring months, the class participated in the college forum on March 19, the Junior-Senior Banquet on April 25, and presented the traditional Senior Ball on May 11. Baccalaureatte was held May 19 and graduation on May 24. Marilyn Tetz was valedictorian, and Lesley Cox was salutatorian. This brought to an end the high school career of the class of 1957; however, no one will ever forget the wonderful times at I. H. S.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the seniors of Ilwaco High School Class of 1957, being of unsound mind and infirm body, do solemnly bequeath after careful deliberation under pressure the following:

ARTICLE I.

To the student body as a whole we leave nothing but a blank. No one wants our noisy ways or our enthusiasm for scholastic achievements.

To the juniors we leave our front row seating section in the auditorium under the watchful eye of the faculty.

To the sophomores we leave our ability to have a successful Junior Prom.

To the freshmen we leave the thought that they, too, will never be able to have initiations for freshmen like the days of 1953.

To the future leaders of I. H. S. activities we leave seven days a week with 24 hours a day each in which to practice plays, songs, and details, and squeeze in a half hour of lessons.

ARTICLE II.

To Mr. Aase we leave our detective badges, lassos, spy glasses and automatic alarm systems in order that he may keep track of next year's presidents of the senior class and student body.

To Mr. Williams we leave and take Nancy Wilson with us. He will have to find some other enthusiastic drummer for his band.

To Mr. Boyd we leave little tiny pieces of used chalk and erasers in order to improve his aim during the summer.

To Mrs. Aase we leave the thought that someone in the class might find a career besides auto mechanics.

To Mr. Fisk we leave Susan Hall's worn out guitar strings to use on his "do-it-yourself" guitar.

To Mr. Lord we leave 28 empty seats in American History and Government. Paul Herman will return.

To Mr. Lee we leave the tall and big freshmen boys and hopes of three county championships.

To Miss Mack we leave Karin Godfrey, "the best little mender in the world."

To Miss Cummings we leave all our bop records.

To Mr. McDonald we leave Donna Deccio's megaphone so that he may be heard over the chatter of David Sugarman.

To Mrs. Beard, our "dear" advisor, we leave thoughts that she may not be Senior Class Advisor next year, and if she is, Bill Morse has graduated. Remember, though, Stuart Clark will be there.

To Bill Martin we leave a year's supply of chewing gum, slightly used, and neatly stored under the seats of the auditorium.

To our cooks, Mrs. Kaino and Mrs. Mays, we leave John Bell and Karin Godfrey to replace Bob Vogle and Marilyn Tetz at the kitchen sink and Monty Baker to fulfill Paul Herman's duties. May they have another happy year cooking delicious meals in spite of it all.

To the school board members we leave a tired, frustrated faculty, and the thought that our 30 desks will be filled with 60 freshmen next fall. This will be some fete.

ARTICLE III.

I, Tom Ahrend, leave my active role in all class discussions to Bunny Connelly.

I, Ron Biggs, will my camera-shyness to Jerry Baker.

I, Don Buhman, will the string by which I've been led these past years to Nancey Kary.

I, Ron Buhman, will my steamed up car windows at noon to David Gradt.

I, Arlene Chellis, will my title of OCEAN PARK BUS MONITOR to Ken Driscoll and may he use the honor wisely.

I, Lesley Cox, leave and take my teddy bear with me.

I, Eva Curry, will my wild nights out to Donna Reinikka.

I, Donna Deccio, will my harem of admirers to Sue Heckard.

I, Allan Degenhart, will my horse laugh to Johnny Bell; the teachers love it.

I, Bob Gerttula, will my interest in science to Jeannie Wilson.

I, Susan Hall, leave my handy dandy, under the dash, pocket flask to Val Mathews.

I, Paul Herman, will Mr. Aase the lovely thought of many more continuous years of Hermans to follow in my footsteps.

I, Jon Kaino, will my Mr. Moon membership card and helmet to Herby McClintock.

I, Judy Knapp, will my ability to get straight A's to Jean Murakami because she might need them next year.

I, Bill Leback, will my smooth ability to skip school to Buddy Singleton.

I, John McNamara, will my title as "most studious senior" to Mike Mosher.

I, Bill Morse, will my ability to get along with Mrs. Beard to Stuart Clark.

I, Mike Oja, leave and am glad of it.

I, Brian O'Neall, will my one love, my car, to Mr. Lee. He may need parts some day.

I, Joan Reynolds, will my clarinet to Andy Meriwether to serenade Ethel during study hall.

I, Susie Sheldon, will my ability to drive Volkswagons off sidewalks to Marilyn Spa.

I, Marilyn Tetz, will my trusty wrist watch to my sister, Eileen, so she may follow in my hurried footsteps and arrive promptly for all occasions.

I, Howard Thomas, will my ability to grow side-burns to Larry Hansen who needs some that will grow.

I, Bob Vogle, will my manly voice to Charles Mays.

I, David Weber, will my manly physique to Sonny Rutzer, so he can keep an eye on Clarice for me while I am in college.

I, Nancy Wilson, leave my jokes in American History to Jeralin Keil.

I, Edy Wilton, will my willingness to do the unglamorous jobs in school activities to Pat Oja.

I, Linda Wolfe, will my giggles to Monty Baker.

I, Jim Yaun, will my way with the ladies to Jim Ness.

Signed this twenty-fifth day of April, 1957.

SENIOR CLASS PROPHECY

The following information was found in the log book of the S. S. Ilwaco, which sank on Peacock Spit while returning from its maiden voyage around the world.

Entry July 8, 1960 — I read in a Brazilian paper of Eva and Harry Noonan's work in the inland jungle. Harry works for an English firm which produces animal skin products. Eva's job is skinning out snakes, which she accomplishes as fast as Harry can locate and kill them.

Nancy Wilson has a position in the chemistry lab at Yale watching the experiments so that they don't boil over. She proudly boasts there has been only one accident and that merely killed a freshman.

Donna Deccio was voted America's best-dressed woman twice, and as Grace Kelly gave up movies to marry Prince Rainier, she is going to give up fashion modeling to. marry Prince Olympia.

Arlene Chellis has been living in Chicago for the past three years writing true confession stories and gossip columns for Playboy magazine.

Bill Leback is in the signal corps of the U. S. Navy, and his primary purpose is to warn lazy seamen of an officer's presence on the poop deck.

Entry January 5, 1965 — Susie Sheldon was the first woman to make the rugged trip to Mars. She found a market up there and is now selling little cars to little people.

The witty gal of the class, Susan Hall, is working in Johannesburg, South Africa, giving guitar lessons to left-handed apes.

Entry November 21, 1969—Joan Reynolds, a former clarinet player of I. H. S., is now traveling with Tingling Bros. Circus as a snake charmer.

Having received word from his former wife, Edy Wilton, I now know the fate of her ailing husband, Allan Degenhart. Three years ago he became sick of mind and was only located just lately beachcombing on the Great Sahara Desert.

Entry December 23, 1974 — David Weber is self employed. Wrestling bears is a rugged-type life, but it seems it keeps him in shape. He says the only fault in his work is that the bears never brush their teeth and have terrible cases of halitosis.

Ron Biggs is employed by the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Movie Co. His curly beard gives him the look of a sultan, and he plays these type of parts in movies of the far, mysterious east.

Entry September 22, 1978—Marilyn Tetz is now the bell ringer in a country school high in the Swiss Alps. Her husband is attending school there, and she is staying with him till he graduates.

Bob Gerttula is married to the daughter of Anita Eckberg and is working for General Motors designing hub caps for the tail wheels of air planes.

Howard Thomas has been intrigued by the sight of flagpole sitters, and he decided to become a mast sitter. His ship sunk, and no one has tried it since. He was up so high that he couldn't swim, and he couldn't jump that is, until it was too late.

Mike Oja is working in the Seaside Aquarium as a pogey obstetrician.

June 8, 1981—Since the disappearance of her husband, Edy Wilton Degenhart has been mentally ill also. She has had crazy dreams of joining the air force so she can design zippers for air pockets.

Another tragic word was to hear that John McNamara was convicted of the murder of his eight wives. It was proven that he killed them all with garden spades.

Donnie Buhman is living a life of ease in Hollywood, California. Living off the earnings of his wife, Lesley Cox, who is the foremost pianist in the country. He takes life easy and occasionally writes a book or short story. His subject is always on the plight of the henpecked husband. Donnie has been divorced three times, but each time has persuaded Lesley to remarry him.

October 14, 1981—Paul Herman, fighter, has yet to win a bout in the ring, but he has never lost one when he catches his opponents in a dark alley.

Jon Kaino and Sharon Bell are married and living in Portland, Oregon. Jon is employed with the KOIN-TV television station. After three years of understudy work, he has at last taken over the lead in the Mr. Moon program.

Last heard from Bob Vogle was that his business had collapsed and left him almost penniless. He is now hoboing across the country in his Cadillac.

November 18, 1981—Jim Yaun is putting his boyhood talents to useful work designing women's clothing in Mobile, Alabama. Jim is a leader in the style change to shorter skirts for today's women.

Brian O'Neall is operating a body and fender shop for tiny sport cars. A tackhammer will pound out dents and a large screwdriver will do to change tires.

Linda Wolfe is the wife of a sergeant in the Air Force. As her three children are old enough to take care of themselves, she is working for an independent outfit painting the smokestacks of factories.

Entry April 9, 1982—Judy Knapp is working for the Humane Department in Tacoma, Washington. Her job is drowning cats for the Salvation Army.

Bill Morse is working in the woods for the Weyerhaeuser Co. He has a daring position as he is a treetopper for their big nursery farm.

Entry November 9, 1989—Tom Ahrend is the controling factor in Washington State politics since the downfall of the Weyerhaeuser empire. He is presently occupied in the problem of purchasing the Olympic National Park for further lumber holdings, but seems to be having some opposition with his long-time rival, the governor.

Ron Buhman has become the world's reknown adventurer of his day. Among his many accomplishments, he regained the shrunken head of Elvis Presley in a dark African jungle.

AFTERWORD

We, the Breakers Staff, at last at the end of our journey, gladly stop and rest for we are tired. We hope you like our work—it is the best we could do.

We want to thank all those who have helped us along the way—the artists, photographers, typists, boosters, students and teachers. They have made this 1957 Breakers a success.
